XIII. PROTECTION AGAINST SHAREHOLDER BASE DILUTION

Article 41. Any Acquiring Shareholder (as per the definition below) to acquire or become holder of shares issued by the Company, in an amount equal to or exceeding thirty percent (30%) of the total shares issued by the Company, excluding treasury shares, shall, within sixty (60) days as of the date of acquisition of the event that resulted in the ownership of shares in this amount, carry out or request the registration of a public tender offer (“OPA”) for the acquisition of all shares issued by the Company, pursuant to the applicable rules of the CVM and the B3 and the terms of this Section.

Paragraph 1 – For the purposes of these Chapter, the capitalized terms below shall have the following meaning:

“Acquiring Shareholder” means any person (including, but not limited to, any individual or legal entity, investment fund, collective investment entities, securities portfolio, universality of rights, or any other type of organization, resident, domiciled or headquartered in Brazil or abroad) or group of persons bound by voting agreement with the Acquiring Shareholder and/or representing the same interest of the Acquiring Shareholder to subscribe and/or acquire the Company shares. The examples of a person representing the same interest of the Acquiring Shareholder includes any person (i) directly or indirectly, controlled or administered by the Acquiring Shareholder; (ii) controlling or administering in any way the Acquiring Shareholder; (iii) directly or indirectly controlled or administered by any person controlling or administering, directly or indirectly, the Acquiring Shareholder; (iv) in which the Controlling Shareholder of the Acquiring Shareholder holds, directly or indirectly, an equity interest equal to or higher than 30% of the capital stock; (v) in which the Acquiring Shareholder holds, directly or indirectly, an equity interest equal to or higher than 30% of the capital stock; or (vi) holding, directly or indirectly, an equity interest equal to or higher than 30% of the Acquiring Shareholder’s capital stock.

Paragraph 2 – The price to be tendered by the share issued by the Company, subject-matter of OPA (“OPA Price”) may not be less than the highest amount between (i) the Economic Value verified in the appraisal report; (ii) one hundred twenty per cent (120%) of the share issue price in any capital increase by means of public offering occurred within twenty-four (24) months preceding the date when the OPA becomes mandatory, pursuant to this Article 49, duly restated by IPCA until payment; and (iii) one hundred twenty per cent (120%) of the average unit price of shares issued by Company during the ninety(90)-day period prior to the OPA to be held on the stock exchange where the highest volume of Company shares traded occurs.

Paragraph 3 - The OPA shall mandatorily observe the following principles and procedures, in addition to other principles and procedures expressly provided for in Article 4 of CVM Rule 361 of March 5, 2002 , as amended (“CVM Rule 361”), where applicable:

I. to be indistinctly addressed to all the Company’s shareholders;

II. to be held in auction at B3;

III. to be carried out so that to ensure an equal treatment to the addressees, allowing them proper information as to the Company and the offer, and provide them with elements necessary to take an independent decision as to the acceptance of OPA;

IV. to be unalterable and irrevocable after the publication in the offer notice, pursuant to CVM Rule 361, except for provisions in Paragraph 5 below;

V. to be launched by the price determined according to the provisions of this Article and paid in cash, in domestic currency, against the acquisition in the OPA of shares issued by the Company; and

VI. to be supported by the Company’s appraisal report, prepared by internationally reputable institution, independence as to the Company’s power of decision, managers and/or controlling shareholder and proven experience in the economic-financial appraisal of publicly-held companies, prepared according to the criteria provided for in Article 8 of CVM Rule 361.

Paragraph 4 – The shareholders owning, at least, ten per cent (10%) of the Outstanding Shares, may request to the Company’s Management to convene a special meeting of shareholders owning Outstanding Shares to resolve on the performance of new appraisal of the Company for the purposes of reviewing the OPA price, whose report shall be prepared under the same molds of the appraisal report referred to in item (vi) of Paragraph 3 of this Article, pursuant to the procedures provided for in Article 4-A of the Brazilian Corporation Law and observing the provisions of applicable CVM and B3 rules and pursuant to this Section.

Paragraph 5 – Should the special meeting referred to in Paragraph 4 above resolve on a new appraisal and the appraisal report determines an amount higher than the initial amount of OPA, the Acquirer may waive this, and in this case, the Shareholder shall observe, where applicable, the procedure provided for in Articles 23 and 24 of CVM Rule 361 and sell the excess shareholding within 3 months as of the date of this same special meeting.

Paragraph 6 – Should the CVM rules determine the adoption of a specific criterion to calculate the purchase price of each Company share in the OPA subject to Article 4-A of the Brazilian Corporation Law that results in a purchase price higher than that determined pursuant to this Article, that purchase price calculated pursuant to CVM rules shall prevail in the performance of OPA provided for in this Article.

Paragraph 7 – The performance of OPA mentioned in the “caput” of this Article shall not exclude the possibility of another Company’s shareholder, or where applicable, the Company itself from preparing a competing OPA, pursuant to applicable rules.

Paragraph 8 – The Acquirer Shareholder shall be required to answer eventual CVM’s requests or requirements related to the OPA, within the terms established by applicable rules.

Paragraph 9 – In the event the Acquirer Shareholder does not comply with the obligations provided for in this Article, inclusive referring to the observance of terms (i) to execute or request the registration of OPA, or (ii) to comply with eventual CVM’s requests or requirements, the Company’s Board of Directors shall convene an Extraordinary General Meeting, in which the Acquirer Shareholder may not vote to resolve on the suspension of exercise of Acquirer’s Shareholder rights, as provided for in Article 120 of the Brazilian Corporation Law.

Paragraph 10 – Any Acquirer Shareholder to acquire or become holder of other partner’s rights, including by force of usufruct or trust over shares issued by the Company, in an amount equal to or exceeding thirty percent (30%) of the total shares issued by the Company shall be equally required to carry out or request an OPA, when applicable, pursuant to the terms provided for in this article, within 60 days of the date of such acquisition or event that resulted in the ownership of these partner's rights over shares in an amount equal to or higher than thirty percent (30%) of the total shares issued by the Company.

Paragraph 11 – The obligations contained in Article 254-A of the Brazilian Corporation Law and Section XII hereof shall not exempt the Acquirer Shareholder from complying with the obligations contained in this Article.

Paragraph 12 – The provisions of this Article shall not apply if any person becomes the holder of shares issued by the Company in an amount exceeding thirty per cent (30%) of the total shares issued thereby, as a result of the subscription of the Company’s shares in a single primary issue approved at the General Meeting, convened by the Board of Directors and whose capital increase proposal has determined the share issue price based on the economic value obtained from the Company’s appraisal report prepared by a specialized institution meeting the requirements provided for in item (vi) of Paragraph 3 of Article 49 hereof.

Paragraph 13 - For the purposes of calculating the thirty percent (30%) of total shares issued by the Company outlined in the caput of this article, involuntary additions to shareholding interest resulting from the cancellation of treasury shares, share redemptions or a reduction in the Company's capital stock through the cancellation of shares shall not be computed.

XIV. ARBITRATION COURT

Article 42. The Company, its shareholders, administrators and members of the Fiscal Council, effectives and alternates, if existent, undertake to resolve, by means of arbitration, before the Arbitration Rules of the Market Arbitration Panel, according to its regulations, any and all dispute or controversy arising among them, related to or deriving from their condition as issuer, shareholders, managers, and members of the fiscal council, especially, the application, validity, effectiveness, construal, infringement and its effects, of the provisions contained in the Law n° 6.385/76, Law n° 6.404, the Company's Bylaws, the rules issued by the Brazilian Monetary Council, the Brazilian Central Bank and CVM, as well as other rules applicable to the operation of the capital markets in general, besides those included in the Novo Mercado Listing Regulations, other B3 regulations the Novo Mercado Listing Agreement.

Sole Paragraph. The Brazilian laws shall be the only one applicable to the merits of any and all dispute, as well as the execution, construal and validity of this present arbitration clause. The arbitration court shall be composed of arbitrators elected as provided for in the Arbitration Rules. The arbitration proceeding shall take place in the City and State of São Paulo, where the arbitration award shall be rendered. The arbitration shall be managed by the Market Arbitration Panel and conducted, judged pursuant to the Arbitration Rules.

XV. LIQUIDATION OF THE COMPANY

Article 43. The Company shall be liquidated in cases provided for by law, and the General Meeting shall be the qualified body to appoint the liquidator or liquidators, as well as the Fiscal Council, which shall operate during the liquidation period, observing the legal formalities.

XVI. FINAL AND TRANSITORY PROVISIONS

Article 44. Pursuant to the provisions in Article 45 of the Brazilian Corporation Law, the reimbursement amount to be paid to dissenting shareholders shall be based on the book value, included in the last balance sheet approved by the General Meeting.
